DATE: 27th September 2019

At a time when travellers are scoffed at because of the excessive carbon footprint of air travel, cruises etc, a real traveller must try everything to offset their negative impact. This World Tourism Day, Dextrus and OneShoe bring to you a forum where like-minded travellers will gather to discuss the steps they can take to be more conscious and will pledge to strive to be positive agents of change wherever they go.

TIME: 5:30 PM Onwards
